

Terms and Conditions

Overview

The following are the Terms and Conditions upon which I provide my services to you, the Client.

Services

I provide a marriage celebrant & wedding planning service; all services can be found on my website.

Payment

I require a $150 deposit to be paid upon confirmation of the booking date.
The balance of our fee is payable one month prior to the event.

Cancellation / Postponement

If you believe that there is a chance that your booking will be cancelled or postponed, you must notify me immediately. You will get a full refund.

Unavailability

If on the day of the event I am not able, for whatever reason, to provide the service you have paid for I will use my best endeavours to find a substitute celebrant to provide the service in my place.

No Warranty

It is very important to me that I ensure the services I provide are valued. Given the nature of my services however, I provide no warranty as to the level of client satisfaction.

Use of Imagery / Testimonials

I may ask that you grant me permission to use photos taken at your event, and/or for you to provide us with a testimonial, to be used for promotional purposes. You are under no obligation to grant me such permission.

Ceremony / Event Start Time

Clients are expected to be on time to start the wedding ceremony or event at the agreed start time.

Rehearsals

Clients are expected to be on time to start a wedding rehearsal at the agreed start time. A rehearsal will be no longer than 45 minutes in length. In the event that a client is late to a rehearsal then the celebrant may need to return at a later time to complete the rehearsal and additional fees may apply.
